

Psalm 21

Of the choirmaster, a psalm of David

למנצח מזמור לדוד

db's trans.

1 O LORD, in your strength the king will rejoice,
And in your salvation, how greatly he will praise.

2 The desires of his heart you give to him,
And the requests of his lips do not without.

Selah

3 For your good blessings will meet us,
You will place a crown of pure gold upon his head.

4 He will ask life of you, you will give it to him,
Length of days forever and ever.

5 His glory is great in your salvation,
Splendor and majesty your place upon him.

6 For you place blessing on him forever,
You make him joyful with gladness before you.

7 For the king trusts in the LORD,
And in the mercy of the most high he is not moved.

8 Your hand will go out against all his enemies,
Your right hand will go out against the ones you hate.

9 You will set them like a stove of fire,
For a time before you, O LORD,
By your anger they will be swallowed up,
The fire will consume them.

10 You will devastate the fruits of his land,
And their seed from among the sons of men.

11 For they are inclined to evil against you,
They devise wicked plans but are not able.

12 For you have set their shoulder,
With your bow strings, you are set against their faces.

13 Be exalted, O LORD, in your strength,
We will sing and praise your might.